“Together, We’re Going Places” Grade Level Parent Meetings

Plans are underway for the upcoming new school year for our students in grades PS through the Freshmen year of high school. We want to share our plans for your child’s next grade level with YOU!

You are invited to attend your student’s “Together, We’re Going Places” Grade Level Parent Meeting. Invitations will be mailed and emailed soon. Attend and learn about what awaits your student in the 2012-2013 school year. Questions will be answered, ideas shared, and reenrollment forms will be available for completion.

Update your passport and get ready, because at All Saints, together, we’re going places!

Phone-A-Friend Night is Coming

Have you joined in this year's Annual Fund? If so, thank you! If not, here are some great reasons to participate: Challenging academics, well equipped classrooms, great faculty and staff, professional development for the faculty, a safe and maintained campus, and your child's success! Phone-A-Friend night will bring parent volunteers together to call All Saints families and encourage them to participate in our Annual Fund. Gifts of every size will help.

Our Goal is 100% Participation

Spelling Bee Results

Congratulations to all who participated in the All Saints Middle and Lower School Spelling Bees.

Neloy Shome(7) won the Middle School Spelling Bee. He will compete for the regional title. Good luck, Neloy!

Congratulations also to Fawwaz Malki(4) for his first place finish for Lower School. Way to go, Patriot spellers!

Chapel Notes

We have spent time this week discussing how to “stand up, pick up your mat, and walk.” We are all given gifts by our Creator, and it is interesting to spend time thinking about how we can use them. Our students are full of gift, promise, and hope. Please know that you are always welcome to join us in chapel each morning!

Peace, Chaplain Paige+

Art News

Patriot Artist of the Week

January 17-20

Congratulations to James Latour (4).

January 23-27

Congratulations to Samantha Aronoff (3).

The Louise Hopkins Underwood Center for the Arts has invited All Saints Patriot artists to display our most “colorful” artwork featured in the First Friday Art Trail on Friday, February 3. The All Saints wall will be in the Box Office Gallery, located outside the theater door. This is a wonderful opportunity to show the community what wonderfully talented artists we have at All Saints! Your child will be notified if his or her art has been selected to be a part of this event. The All Saints art pieces will be displayed from February 3-25.

Thank You!

Thank you, 2nd grade parents, for helping with the Chinese New Year celebration party held on Monday.

Also, thank you to all who assisted with lunch from the Fortune Cookie, dressing the dragon, and helping Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Woods prepare for the special day.

Admissions Update

The new year and the buzz regarding the expansion have ushered in a great deal of interest in All Saints. Many packets have already been mailed, and multiple tours have been scheduled in the coming weeks! With the addition of the Patriot Learning Center building this year, there is strong interest in our PS, Pre-K and grade levels in particular.

If you know of people who might be interested in being a part of the All Saints community, please feel free to have them give Paige McKay a call. She would be delighted to give them a tour of our campus and share more about our school.

Also, if you are a current All Saints family who is interested in enrolling a younger sibling in your family as a Patriot in the fall, please let Paige know asap. She wants to make sure NOW that all our little brothers and sisters have a spot in August!

Upcoming Chess Opportunities

The UIL Invitational in Chess Puzzle Solving will held on January 28 at the Science Spectrum. This invitational is open to students in grades K-5 and 6-12. Onsite registration begins at 8:15am.

The 5th Annual Lubbock Open will also be on January 28. It will be a five round Swiss System tournament and is open to all ages with USCF membership. To obtain a membership go to www.uschess.com. Registration for the tournament will begin at 9am.

Chess Club meets during lunch in the library, Monday through Thursday. Come and join the fun!

Coaches Corner

The Patriot basketball seasons are winding down. The Patriot teams are having great success on the court. Congratulations to the 7th grade girls basketball team as they won its first game of the year last week against Lubbock Christian. Team members include: Vidya Kadiyala, Cami Kasemsri, Daniella Mata, Ariane Martinnelli, Natalie Chaudhuri, Avery Beard, Addison Gordon, Tess Headrick, Lily McKay, Harper Roberts, Alexandra Shropshire, and Caroline Wilkerson. Coach Robertson and Coach Brown have done a fantastic job coaching those young ladies. Our 8th grade boys team defeated both Trinity and Lubbock Christian last week. Two Patriot teams took on Midland St. Ann's yesterday. The 7th grade boys came up short, and 8th grade girls were victorious. Our last home games of the season will be on tomorrow, January 26, with all Patriot teams in action. The 8th grade girls and boys basketball teams will play in the WTCOA Championship Tournaments beginning Saturday, January 28, in Amarillo.

Tennis, Golf, and Track will each officially begin within the next few weeks. We have had a great response for all three sports, and we will have a very busy spring. Sport specific emails will be sent to the parents of the athletes who are signed up for each sport with details in the next few days.

5th Grade Young A's

Please return your forms for travel as soon as possible. You may put them in Mrs. Culp's box in the office.

Please take a moment and check your children's uniform clothes and make sure the correct name is labeled in them. If you have any clothes labeled NURSE please return those items to Nurse Lisa. We try to keep extra clothes on hand for little emergencies.

Thank you!

Don't Forget

Daycare will not be available for Winter Break on Friday, February 17 & 20.

*****

The Bookstore regular hours are Monday mornings from 7:45 to 8:30am and Wednesday afternoons from 3:45-4:30pm. The next dress uniform day is Wednesday, February 22.
